Dear Edward Turner -

My wife and I wish to invite Mrs. Turner and yourself to be our guests for the Metropolitan Opera's production of Benjamin Britten's Billy Budd on Saturday evening, 26 April.

We think you will appreciate this work, particularly because of Melville's moving treatment of the problems of leadership -- and also because of the novel setting.

We would be pleased to serve dinner before the opera at our home - not far from Kennedy Center - at 6:00 pm.

We hope that you will be able to accept --

David Powers
